

Copulare specializes in sand/lead ball filled shelving to reduce resonances. They can make virtually any design from standard to detailed inlaid designs. They have also began offering a limited edition bronze unit that uses dental filling material inside the lead sound deadening while under the bronze platform shelving is lead for resonance control. The price of the inlaid wood Grand Porta stand seen above or the custom bronze stand is €15,000.